

News

Running for Money

6th September 2006 FEATURE

At 9.35am on Sunday 2nd July, Catherine McGarey, one of Thatu's Trustees, bravely began the British 10km run in London to raise funds for Thatu.

Starting at 9.35am on Sunday 2nd July, at Hyde Park Corner, the annual British 10k London Run has quickly grown to become the third most significant mass participation road race in the UK. The race route passes many of London's most famous historic landmarks.

Catherine completed her run on one of the hottest days of the year and raised £420 for Thatu.

Susan Law, another trustee, also raised £230 from a sponsored walk.

Congratulations and thanks to both Susan and Catherine!

